more ways than one. He not only raised quite a nice sum for the work, but created a good deal of enthusiasm, and took a little seven-year-old girl from Tazewell, and within ten days had her placed in a fine home. The chairman of the local board here, Capt. A. J. Tynes, is in receipt of a letter from the secretary, in which is stated that the little girl has been placed in a family well recommended,

Cohen's Sky-Scraper Purchase.

One of those events that can happen but once in a great while took place last week, when Cohen's Store became the purchaser of a stock of merchandise aggregating in sum total to upwards of FORTY-FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS. The stock was the contents of an entire storehouse of goods of one of the foremost merchandise concerns in the State of New York, now no more. The average PRICES PAID ARE FROM 35c TO 78c ON THE DOLLAR, and are composed of all merchandise stored for this season's business, all new and fresh and of the latest production.

This event will be marked with a sale such as has not taken place for years.
